Quick Response Code

The Dental Journal of the Indira Gandhi Institute of Medical Sciences (DJIGIMS), is publishing Volume 3, Issue 1, marking a moment of immense pride and joy. With each new volume, we anticipate showcasing the remarkable advancements across various domains within dental sciences since the previous issue. It is our belief that this upcoming edition will serve as a testament to the relentless pursuit of academic excellence and freedom in dental research and practice.

As we prepare to unveil this latest volume, we hold steady hope that its publication will serve as a foundation of knowledge, illuminating the path for countless doctors, academicians, and students who look to navigate the field of dental care with precision and efficacy. Through the use of cutting-edge research findings, clinical insights, and best practices, we aim to foster a community of informed practitioners dedicated to delivering optimal oral healthcare to patients worldwide.

In extending our heartfelt gratitude, we thank the Director of Indira Gandhi Institute of Medical Sciences (IGIMS) and Head of Department (HoD) PGIDER for their support and guidance. I wish to express appreciation to the Journal Committee, Editorial/Advisory Board, and all the esteemed authors whose unwavering dedication and contributions have been instrumental in shaping this volume. It is through their collective efforts and commitment that the DJIGIMS continues to uphold its legacy of excellence in dental scholarship and education.

With anticipation and excitement, I extend warm greetings to all and eagerly await the release of new issue of the Dental Journal of the Indira Gandhi Institute of Medical Sciences.
